1. Today, I learned that on Tuesday, 16 June, at 0900 hours the Executive Director and Chief, CIA Historical Staff will present an exhibit representing the work of the Historical Staff. Excerpt from Memorandum from Historical Officer, NE Division, dated 27 May 1970:

"In order for the Division to meet the 30 September 1971 deadline for submission of draft histories to the Executive Secretary, we feel that it is mandatory that we utilize a format which will correspond largely to a briefing paper such as might be written for a new Chief of Station or other Division officer with a need-to-know the highlights of a Station within the Division's responsibility. Such a paper will necessarily omit heavily detailed information which can best be gleaned from the pertinent area branch or desk, and will indicate the most important points of operational climate, changes in the Related Mission Directives and other Operational Instructions, liaison relationships (both host and third country), the most important points of significant operations and activities, etc. We feel that the Ankara Station paper, submitted for review to the Executive Secretary on 26 May 1970, is an example of the type of paper desired for our Historical Program."
